PREFACE TO PART FIRST.

Two or three memories may sometimes reach back a hundred and fifty or two hundred years, but the aged sires and matrons whose fathers told them what their grandsires saw and did a century and a half ago are fast passing away. Even the old records, brown and brittle with age, are crumbling and disappearing. Three of the closely written leaves of the oldest volume of Oxford records, which evidently gave the earliest vital statistics of the parish, are gone, while others are so worn as not to be fully decipherable. Old documents are destroyed by accident or scattered far and wide by the migration of families. In view of this, and to bring these matters into convenient form for reference and preservation, the following pages have been compiled.

The original parish records are in two volumes, one of which was kept by the pastor and contained a record of such matters as came under his direction, and the other by the clerk of the society, containing a record of the society meetings and of such business as the laws of the colony reserved to laymen.

Many names were found of which it is difficult to determine the exact spelling, and others in which the spelling is evidently incorrect. Knowing that the value of such records depends upon their reliability, great care has been taken to make a correct copy.

The figures on the right of pages 23 to 27 and 34 to 53 are in the original record and were evidently intended to show at a glance the number of the event recorded.

The incompleteness of the town record of deaths, pages 76 to 79, is to be regretted, yet even as it is they will be of great value. It will be seen that on these pages the children are mostly omitted, the registrar evidently entertaining the strange idea that it was unnecessary to record the deaths of the little ones.

Those who may be able are requested to furnish any information, old papers, etc., which may aid in making the remainder of the work more complete and interesting.

HISTORY OF OXFORD.

THE ECCLESIASTICAL SOCIETY.

The town of Oxford comprises an area in the honored Commonwealth of Connecticut which has had its full share in the development of those forms of government which secure so much of civil and religious liberty. Its sons and daughters faithfully toiled to lay the foundations of present prosperity and sacrificed much that justice and freedom should triumph.

Not incorporated as a town until 1798, yet clothed with the powers of an independent parish in 1741, it is to the parish records we must look for most of the details of more than half a century, and in the minutia of the affairs of the ecclesiastical society so carefully preserved, we find a key to many incidents of pioneer life.

The history of a church is, to a great extent, the history of the people of the people of the parish, and in many cases, is about the only available record which gives any details of the earlier inhabitants, whose descendants have left their impress on the society and institutions of the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from British America to the Gulf of Mexico.

The first petition for the setting apart of Oxford as a separate parish was made to the General Assembly in May, 1740, and on the 7th of May, 1741, the petition was granted in the following words:

"Whereas upon the memorial of Timothy Worster, John Twitchel and John Towner, &c., dwelling in the and northwest part of the township of Derby, Isaac Trowbridge, John Weed, Jonas Weed, Joseph Weed, Thomas and Joseph Osborn, dwelling in the southwest part of Waterbury woods, in the old society in said Waterbury, and Isaac Knowles, Joseph Towner, Eliphalet Bristol, John Tift, and Aaron Bristol, dwelling in the southeast part of the township of Woodberry woods in the parish of Southberry, moving to the General Assembly holden at Hartford, May, anno Dom. 1740, that they might become one entire, ecclesiastical society, and praying for a committee, &c.; the said General Assembly did appoint a committee, who accordingly making their report to the General Assembly at New Haven in October last, and the same not being accepted; and the said General Assembly in October last appointing another committee, Colo. Benjamin Hall, Capt. Isaac Dickerman and Capt. John Fowler, to view and report, &c.: And whereas the said last mentioned committee have to this Assembly made their report that according to the direction of said Assembly they have repaired to the abovesaid places, &c., and find and are of opinion, that it is necessary and best that the said inhabitants be made a distinct, separate ecclesiastical society. and that their bounds and limits be as followeth: Beginning at the mouth of the four mile brook in Derby bounds, where the brook emptieth itself into the great river, and to run as said brook runneth by said brook unto the bridge that is between the dwelling houses of Abel Gun and John Holbrook; and from said bridge by the highway that runneth between the land commonly called the Camp's Mortgage and the land called Quakers Farm Purchase, unto the river called the Little river; and thence as the Little river runneth to Naugatuck river; and thence northerly, by said Naugatuck river, that being the east bounds of said society, until it comes to the dividing line between the towns of Derby and Waterbury; thence turning westerly and running as the line runneth between the towns of Derby and Waterbury, as aforesaid, until it comes to the southeasterly boundary of Thomas and Joseph Osborn's Farm in the bounds of Derby; and from thence to run northerly to the northeast corner boundary of Jos. Weed's farm in Waterbury town bounds; and from thence a northwesterly line to the northeast corner boundary of Isaac Trowbridge's farm, in said Waterbury town bounds: and from thence to run westerly, in the line of said Trowbridge's farm, about sixty rods, to Woodberry town line; and thence to the northwest corner of Isaac Knowles' farm in the township of Woodberry; and from the northwest corner of said Knowles' farm a west line to the eight mile brook, in the bounds of Woodberry; and then by the said brook, until it comes to the dividing line between the towns of Woodberry and Derby; and thence to run westerly in the line that divideth between the said towns of Woodberry and Derby, unto the great river; thence by the river southerly to the first mentioned boundary, the mouth of four mile brook; as by said report on file, dated May the 7th, anno Dom. 1741."

"It is thereupon resolved by this Assembly, That the above said memorialists, inhabitants of Derby, Waterberry and Woodberry, situate and living within the bounds and limits above described, be and become together one entire, separate and distinct ecclesiastical society or parish, subsisting and known by the name of the parish of Oxford, and endowed with all powers and privileges wherewith other parishes within this government are by law endowed."

The first meeting of the society was held June 30, 1741. The following is an exact copy of the record:

Att a meeting of the Parrish or society of oxford, in the Colony of Connecticut, on the thirtieth Day of June, 1741, being Lawfully warned and held at the house of ^{mr}Samuel Twitchels. Isaac Trowbridge, of said Parrish, by major vote was chosen Clerk of the same, and the oath by Law provided for a society Clerk was to him administered in said meeting pr Sam^l Bassit. Esqur, Justice of peace.

Att said meeting ^{mr}Isaac Knowles by a major vote was chosen modderator for said meeting.

Voted and Past in said meeting that ^{mr}Caleb Perry, ^{mr}Ebenezer Riggs, ^{mr}John Lumm to be a committee for said society to take care of the prudentials of s^d society.

Voted and past in said meeting to hier a minister for this Present year.

Voted and Past in said meeting that ^{mr}John Towner, ^{mr}Abial Fairchild and ^{mr}Sam^l Twitchel to be a minister committee for this Present year, and to hier a minister upon probation.

ISAAC TROWBRIDGE.

Society Clerk.

At a society meeting held Oct. 6th, 1741, it was voted to build a meeting house and to ask the General Assembly at their next session to appoint a commission to decide where the meeting house should be built. Mr. Ebenezer Riggs was appointed agent for the society to present the matter to the General Assembly. The following is the order of the Assembly:

"Upon the report of Capt. Isaac Dickerman. Mr. James Talmadge and Mr. John Hitchcock, appointed by this Assembly to affix the place for the inhabitants of the parish of Oxford to build their meeting house upon, &c., the said committee having viewed their circumstances, and have set down a stake and laid stones to the same, at the south end of the hill, commonly called Jack's Hill, and near the highway that runs on the east side the Little river, on land belonging to Ephraim Washbourn, which said place the said committee report to be the most convenient place for the said inhabitants to build a meeting house upon: Resolved by this Assembly, that the abovesaid place be the place for the said inhabitants to build their meeting house upon; and the said inhabitants are hereby ordered to build a meeting house at the said place accordingly."

At the meeting of Oct. 6th, which was held at the house of John Twitchel, John Chatfield moderator, it was voted "to disannul that vote that was past to hier a minister upon probation," and to lay a tax of one penny on the pound to defray the charges of a court committee. Sergeant Timothy Wooster and Mr. James Wheeler were appointed a committee to hire a minister for that year. It was also voted that the places to post notices of society meetings should be at the houses of John Lumm, Jonathan Griffin, Joseph Lewis, Isaac Knowles, Joseph Davis and Joseph Wood, and that the meetings on the Sabbath be held at the house of Samuel Twitchell "till y^e year be ended."

THE "CHURCH MEETINGS."

The first church meeting recorded in this venerable volume was held May 31st, 1764. Thomas Clark was chosen chorister and, "2 Voted that money should be drawn from y<sup>e</sup> Churches Treasury to purchase a Book for Ch<sup>h</sup> Records."

"Dec. 27th, 1764. At a Church Meeting Regularly Warned, holden at y<sup>e</sup> Meeting House in said Parish, Imprimis, Samuel Woodruff chosen Deacon. 2. Voted that Doct<sup>r</sup> Watses Version of the Psalms be sung in the Congregation on the Sabath or Lord's Day. S<sup>d</sup> meeting opened and closed by Prayer. Test David Brownson, Pastor."

"July 18, 1765, it was voted by s<sup>d</sup> Ch<sup>h</sup> that David Woodruff be admitted to special ordinances whenever he should appear to make a Publick Profession of Religeon, p<sup>r</sup> David Brownson, Pastor."

Nov. 24, 1765, Dea. Ebenezer Riggs was chosen messenger to go to Northbury for the confirmation of Mr. Storrs.

Dec. 1, Dea. John Lumm was chosen messenger to attend the consociation at North Guilford.

At a church meeting held Jan. 23<sup>d</sup>, 1766, and at several subsequent meetings there were under consideration a disagreement between Asah Ward and Samuel Wheeler which are of interest only as showing the authority of the church at that time. It appears that Wheeler has spoken against the character of Ward. After giving the specifications the charge proceeds as follows:

"All which is apprehended to be a direct and scandalous breach of y<sup>e</sup> 9th Commandment, and highly prejudicial to Truth and Justice. And furthermore is st criminal slandering and Backbiting, and evil-speaking which is expressly, and repeatedly forbidden in God's Holy Word, and so is highly dishonourable to God, and justly Matter of Offence to all y<sup>e</sup> People of God. That y<sup>e</sup> Complainant being justly grieved, and offended, did according to y<sup>e</sup> Direction of our Lord Jesus Christ, in such case provided, go to y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Sam<sup>l</sup> Wheeler, and betwene him and himself alone told him his Fault, but he refusing to hear him, s<sup>d</sup> Complainant proceeded according to y<sup>e</sup> above mentioned Direction, to take two of y<sup>e</sup> Brethren of s<sup>d</sup> Ch<sup>b</sup>, and did with them go again and tell him his Fault, but without y<sup>e</sup> desired effect, and to his grief. And now according to Christs Rule he finds himself obliged to tell y<sup>e</sup> Matter, as he now does to the Ch<sup>b</sup> hoping his offending Brother, who has refused to hear him or y<sup>e</sup> Brethren with him will hear y<sup>e</sup> Ch<sup>b</sup>, wherefore y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Complainant desires his Rev<sup>d</sup> Pastor, and Brethren in Christ, to take Cognissance of the s<sup>d</sup> Matter, and Hear, Judge, Weigh, and determine s<sup>d</sup> Cause on hearing y<sup>e</sup> Evidence s<sup>d</sup> Complainant has in Readiness to produce in support of y<sup>e</sup> Charge, brought in this Complaint, when called thereto.

Asah Ward.

Rev. Messrs. Humphrey and Woodbridge were called in to advise and assist in the matter. Deacon John Lum, Capt. Joseph Osborn, Ensign Thomas Clark and Mr. Samuel Wooster were appointed to confer with Wheeler and Ward and endeavor to effect a reconciliation. These dignitaries being unsuccessful a meeting was held Jan. 30th, 1766.

"Upon Consideration of the Facts, and hearing y<sup>e</sup> Evidences in s<sup>d</sup> Case, it was 1st Determined by the Ch<sup>b</sup>, that, the Declaration of s<sup>d</sup> Sam<sup>l</sup> Wheeler was not in Peremptory Terms, but by way of Oppinion.—2<sup>dly</sup> tried by Vote wheather a Confession exhibited by s<sup>d</sup> Sam<sup>l</sup> Wheeler, some Time Since to s<sup>d</sup> Asah Ward was a Sufficient Confession. s<sup>d</sup> Vote passed in the Negative. 3<sup>ly</sup> Voted that s<sup>d</sup> Sam<sup>l</sup> Wheeler should exhibit a publick Confession. 4<sup>thly</sup> Voted that Deacon John Lumm, and Cap<sup>t</sup> Zechariah Hawkings, should go out with me in order to assist in drawing up a confession which was in y<sup>e</sup> words following (viz:) "I Samuel Wheeler, acknowledge, that Some Time in March 1765, I did openly utter Some Expressions (as my Opinion) against Asah Ward, a member of this Ch<sup>b</sup>, Contrary to the Rules of Gods Word, whereby I have grieved him and this Ch<sup>b</sup>, for which I am heartily Sorry, and ask his Forgiveness, and the Forgiveness of all Gods People for me, promising by divine grace assisting me wherein I have offended to do so no more.

Samuel Wheeler.

Oxford Jan<sup>r</sup> 30th 1766.

It was voted that this "confession" was sufficient and that it "be read in publick next Lord's day, in the forenoon, immediately after ye sermon was ended," which was done and Wheeler "was restored to Charity."
